Class Spotlight - English:

Welcome back, one and all, to the Spring 2018 semester. If my calculations are correct (I teach English for good reason so, bear with me) this semester marks the ten-year anniversary of the creation of Access to Success. I like to think that's something nobody can take away from us and I for one think it's a big deal, well worthy of pride. In the ten years we've been in business, 350 students have earned diplomas with us with nearly 40 more slated to graduate this Spring.

Access existed for a year and a half before I came aboard in 2010. These eight and half years have meant the world to me and I can't imagine not being part of this community. I was so lucky to nail my ideal teaching job right out of the gate.

There is nothing but continued high hopes as we head into this semester and I wish everyone great success here and beyond. Here's to another ten years (or a hundred more for that matter) of the unique quality that makes this program what it is!-Sam
